

February 11, 1975

the question before the house is Senator Savage motion to reconsider our action. It will be a machine vote and it will take 25 voting members. Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Speaker, I humbly request that you rule Dickinson's motion out of order, Savage's motion out of order and let's get on with the amendment to the bill.

SPEAKER: I am sorry, Senator Marsh, I don't believe it is possible to do that. The question is, shall the Savage motion prevail. The Clerk shall record.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to reconsider.

SPEAKER: Senator Mills, do you have your motion in order now as you suggested.

SENATOR MILLS: Mr. President, I've had it in order for almost an hour.

CLERK: Mr. President, there is a request to bracket LB 145 for February 12th for a specific amendment. I don't know if you want to take that up with this or not.

SPEAKER: Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I visited with Senator Syas and I have agreed and he has agreed with me and I have commented to Senator Mills that by tomorrow I would have the specific amendment which would take care of the objection that Senator Syas had in reference to contract between willing buyer and willing seller. It would also take care of the--include Senator Mills motion in regard to the eminent domain proceedings and Senator Syas has agreed that if we will not delay beyond tomorrow that he would not object and I would suggest that this would be the way out of this dilemma and on the way to a more orderly procedure. I would ask your indulgence and support of my motion.

SPEAKER: The chair recognizes Senator Anderson. Is that a unanimous consent motion, Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Yes, that would be fine. I am sure there are no objections at this time. Senator Anderson has agreed and I do not know of any objection.

SPEAKER: Time certain is tomorrow, is this correct?

SENATOR SCHMIT: That is correct.

SPEAKER: Unanimous consent has been asked to bracket LB 145 until tomorrow. Any objection. So ruled. On Final Reading. LB 162. The clerk shall read.

CLERK: LB 162. Final Reading. Read.

SPEAKER: All provisions of law have been met with, the question is, shall the bill pass? Have you all voted? The Clerk will report.

CLERK: Roll call vote read. 40 ayes, 0 nays. I am sorry. Senator Barnett voting aye. Senator Marvel voting aye. Senator Kremer voting aye. Senator Kelly voting aye. 44 ayes, 0 nays, 5 not voting.

SPEAKER: The bill is passed. LB 163. All provisions of law
